

Proware won " the 8th Rising Star Award "

TAIPEI, TAIWAN (August 25, 2005) Proware Technology Corp. is awarded the honor of the 8th Rising Star Award from MOEA (the Ministry of Economic Affairs). The winning companies are at the top of competition in their respective.

These companies not only feature high quality, low cost and innovative capability but also are successful in controlling global competitive advantage. Premier Frank Hsieh who was also present congratulated all those who won the 8th Rising Star Award. The winning of the Rising Star Award implies that Proware has been highly recognized as a corporation that emphasizes product quality, insists on honest running, actively develops overseas markets, and promotes the national image of Taiwan.

These companies not only feature high quality, low cost and innovative capability but also are successful in controlling global competitive advantage. Premier Frank Hsieh who was also present congratulated all those who won the 8th Rising Star Award. The winning of the Rising Star Award implies that Proware has been highly recognized as a corporation that emphasizes product quality, insists on honest running, actively develops overseas markets, and promotes the national image of Taiwan.